Wonderful Walks Rugia

ISLAND HOPPING IN NORTHEASTERN GERMANY

Modern Hanseatic cities on the mainland and the idyllic Baltic Sea beaches, thatched houses, pier, lighthouses and promenades on the islands. The Baltic Sea, also known as the Pearl of the North, is truly a dream. Dunes, sandbars, beach chairs – and not a soul for miles to see. Switch off, forget about everyday worries and hike around Rügen, that's the plan.

Every path and every corner will surprise you anew and convince you of the charm of the north. Rügen is a true paradise for hikers and those who want to become one. More details about hiking in Northern Europe.

Details about a hiking holiday on Rügen

They are not talkative, the Northern Lights – at least that is the widespread belief about the people on the North and Baltic Seas. In the 'cool north', nature and the sea speak for themselves. Idyllic panoramas and sweeping views dominate the landscape here. From Stralsund you go first to Hiddensee and from here on to the Wittow peninsula, the northernmost part of Rügen. Other stops on your route are Cape Arkona, Sassnitz, Binz and Göhren.

The highlights of a hiking holiday on Rügen

- Jasmund National Park: Unforgettable, spectacular and definitely worth a stopover. Here are the so-called chalk cliffs. Bordered by beech forests and surrounded by sparse bogs and springs, the coast is a real feast for the eyes. There's a reason why UNESCO made the old beech forest, including the chalk cliffs a World Heritage Site.
- The steam train 'Rasender Roland': A steam locomotive-operated experience of driving through the landscape on rattling rails should not be missed.
