Rhine walking: Rüdesheim - St. Goarshausen

CASTLES, VINEYARDS AND CULINARY DELIGHTS

Recharge your batteries, experience new impressions and just enjoy life - all of this is part of a successful holiday. All this and much more awaits you on a hiking tour with Eurohike on the Rheinsteig. Everything is right here: the breathtaking nature, the culturally splendid architecture and the excellent cuisine. In addition, hiking becomes a bit of luxury here, because the Rheinsteig is a premium hiking trail and has already been voted the most beautiful hiking trail in Germany.

Details about the hike on the Rheinsteig

The short hiking holiday, starts in charming Rüdesheim. Before you start, you should pay a visit to the famous Drosselgasse. It is known as the "happiest alley in the world". On the stage to Lorch, the Middle Rhine Valley awaits you with countless, wonderful views.

On days 3 and 4 there are not only forests, vineyards and castles, but also numerous opportunities to find a cosy place to stop. The final stage to St. Goarshausen offers several special sights. The picturesque view of the three castles should be enjoyed just as intensely as the ascent to the legendary Loreley.

Highlights of the hiking tour on the Rheinsteig

- Hiking along Germany's most famous river: The popular hiking trail accompanies the Rhine for 320km, which is considered to be a junction between the Mediterranean and Northern Europe.
- Vineyards, Rhine Riesling & rustic wine bars: You could say that wine belongs to the Rheingau like water to a river. So you shouldn't miss a tasting of the fine wines and a stop in the rustic restaurants.

- Idyllic villages with half-timbered houses: Whether Assmannshausen or Lorch, the charming towns
