Siebengebirge for families

OF DRAGONS, PALACES AND MARINE CREATURES.

Unspoiled hiking trails, unknown mountains, medieval castles and places far away from the tourist crowds: all this awaits young and old in the Siebengebirge or 'Seven Mountains'. Going on holiday where dragons are at home is the theme of this hiking trip. On a mystical walking holiday you are with fire-breathing giants. From Königswinter you explore the natural park of the Siebengebirge, the city of Bonn and undertake adventurous day trips.

When little mountaineers legs are getting tired, there are plenty of activities to keep them busy. A boat trip on the Rhine, a visit to the reptile zoo or a ride on the Drachenfelsbahn promises and extra portion of adventure.

Details of the hiking holiday in the Seven Mountains

The starting point for your daily excursions is Königswinter/Bonn. After a comfortable arrival, you start the adventurous circular walk around the Drachenfels (Dragon Rocks) the next day. The ascent to the Nibelungenhalle increases the excitement with each step. Say hello to the dragon, whose home is in the Dragon Cave, and experience a unique encounter. If the kids are not so brave, just cut the path and head straight for the Drachenfels.

Ship Ahoy! For a boat trip on the Rhine, pleasure comes first. Once in Bonn you can really enjoy time together with your loved ones. Be it a leisurely city walk, a museum visit or a picnic in the park. Culture tip: Discover Bonn's more beautiful square at a city rally and learn a lot about the former German capital.

Highlights of the family hiking tour

- Visit the SEA LIFE: need a break from walking? The absolute highlight is a visit to the SEA LIFE in Königswinter. When walking through the 360 degree glass tunnel, only a thick glass panel separates you from the beautiful marine animals. More than 2,000 animals await you in 36 aquariums and tanks. Go on a discovery tour and see skates, big sharks and many more!

Circular Walk ‚Siebengebirge‘

The scenery of the Siebengebirge-nature park was shaped by volcanoes and also produced rocks and stones, which were quarried and used to build Cologne cathedral in the Middle Ages. Along the 200 possible hiking kilometres of the Siebengebirge-mountains you keep coming across ancient quarries. You too can discover them during an exciting circular walk around Mount Petersberg today. Past the mystic Haisterbach monastery ruin you walk through the ‚Dollendorfer Hardt‘ with marvellous long-distance views onto the Rhine river valley and the Siebengebirge-mountains. You may even come across a fire salamander or a peregrine, two of over 80 species of fauna and flora which are critically endangered, however can still be found in the Siebengebirge-mountains.
