Mallorca's West Coast with Charm

HIKING RALLY IN THE ORANGE-VALLEY.

Hiking on Mallorca? Definitely! The popular Balearic island is ideal for an active holiday with plenty of sun, the finest cuisine and all the highlights that the mountains on the west coast have to offer. You will also walk along dreamy stretches of coastline, through idyllic gems and past magnificent gardens. Enjoy the dreamy flair of this corner of the world with us!

Details of the hiking tour with Eurohike

The starting point of the tour is the unique harbour town of Port de Sóller. The bay and the harbour invite you to take a walk right after your arrival. The first day of the tour is no less picturesque. The route takes you to Fornalutx, which has been voted "Spain's most beautiful village" several times. If you walk north from here, you will get wonderful views of the mountains.

Day 3 is mainly downhill: We start at the impressive Cuber reservoir and from there along a restored pilgrimage path that snakes back to Port de Sóller. In addition, there is an impressive coastal path to the tranquil Sa Calobra and from there a boat trip along the coast as well as a magnificent hike, starting from the artists' village of Deia through numerous bays. The rest day is suitable for an excursion to Palma, for example.

Highlights of the tour on the west coast of Mallorca

- The picturesque bay of Pt. Sóller with its many sailing boats is a real feast for the eyes. Due to its great location in the northwest of the island, activities and tranquillity can be combined particularly well here.
- Enchanting green valley of the oranges: A must-see! The region around Fornalutx is known for the cultivation of citrus fruits of all kinds and the corresponding delicacies. Jam, syrup and liqueur made from oranges, mandarins and lemons - a perfect treat to take home.

- Impressive Tramuntana Mountains: "The north on the compass rose" is the name of this rugged yet charming mountain range, which is due to the cool north wind that blows across the island from there.
- Mallorca's famous west coast in all its facets: Rugged and at the same time gentle, dreamy but also lively - hardly any other destination is as diverse as Mallorca and the west coast in particular.
- Views to dream of: Enchanting bays, majestic rocks, the expanse of the sea - your eyes will not be able to get enough of the beauty of this spot on earth.

Useful information about the 7-day tour

The hotel "Es Port" is a stylish and high-quality base during this tour based in one hotel. This means that you will return to your starting point every day. As the tour is one of our "Hiking tours with Charm", the accommodation offers extra comfort. The 4 to 5-hour hikes are on good, but often stony paths. Good surefootedness and comfortable equipment are required.
