South Tyrol for families

FROM RESCHEN TO MERANO FOR ALL SHOE SIZES

Hiking for the whole family. - this tour is dedicated to adventures for big and small shoes. The exciting South Tyrol is ideal for a tour with children. Well rested and strengthened with a regional breakfast, you start a new adventure day after day between the Reschensee and the Mediterranean garden city of Merano.

Details about hiking in South Tyrol for families

The Reschensee is worth seeing and experiencing. It is widely known and a popular photo opportunity because of the church that protrudes from it in the middle. It is popular for sailing and windsurfing because of its first-class thermals. There are opportunities for swimming along the route in addition to the Reschensee, for example, in the Naturno adventure pool or the thermal baths in Merano.

South Tyrol also includes the numerous palaces and castles, several of which can be seen along the tour. In the famous Juval Castle, which is owned by Reinhold Messner, the "Messner Mountain Museum" can be visited. Panorama and adventure trails, wooden paths and a suspension bridge round off the hikes, which perfectly combine the historical and scenic treasures of the region.

Highlights of the hiking tour in South Tyrol for families

- The hikes mostly lead along so-called Waalwege. The former irrigation pipes were used to irrigate the agricultural areas. They are particularly suitable for families, as cooling water for splashing around is always in the immediate vicinity.
- Fragrant apple orchards and fertile grapevines along the way: Thanks to the more than 2,000 hours of sunshine per year, grapes and, above all, apples thrive in South Tyrol. While the parents

Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Reschen

Welcome to Vinschgau! The steel-blue Lake Reschen and its famous tower that pokes out of the water will make you feel welcome. Not only kitesurfers and other water sport fanatics splash around in this very welcoming lake. Enjoy your first hours in this border triangle region in the sun and take in the view of the mountains before you start your walk through the lush green South Tyrol tomorrow.

Reschen - Burgeis/Mals

You leisurely walk along the magnificently glistening Lake Reschen and you can admire the former church tower poking out the dammed lake. Continue through St. Valentin, where you can take a detour on the Talai forest exploratory path with a treasure hunt. Afterwards you keep on walking along Lake Haider. In doing so, you can observe lots of ducks swimming in the lake from secluded places. From the South side, you walk further along the rippling Adige river until you get to Burgeis.

Burgeis/Mals – Schluderns

Let's go along the 'Sonnensteig', an exciting irrigation channel path where you can find out a lot about the Vinschgau mythological world. You keep getting fantastic views of the snowy mountain tops. You walk high up above Mals along the 'Malser Oberwaal' and you will go via the Tartscher Bichl to "Ganglegg". Have a look through the most researched cave settlements from the Bronze and Iron Ages in the entire Alps. At the end of the day you cross impressive bridges and wooden steps over the gorge, which will bring you to today's destination, Schluderns. Once there, it's worth checking out the archeological finds from Ganglegg in the Vinschgau museum.

Schluderns – Ride on the Vinschgaubahn from Kastelbell to Naturns

You start today with a journey on the Vinschgaubahn, which will take you through the colourful scenery in South Tyrol to Kastelbell. From there you walk on the Schnalser Waalweg in the shade thanks to the trees. You will go via Kastelbell towards Juval palace, which is owned by the one of the most famous mountaineers, Reinhold Messner. Of course you have time to go on a tour through the palace. Afterwards you walk uphill to Naturns via the windy path.

Naturns – Partschins

Jump into Naturns water park with giant slides. It is a great way to cool down before continuing with your walk. You will go along the 'Schlossweg' (palace path) from where you can enjoy another magnificent view, this time of Naturns. After this, you walk along the 'Sonnenberger' panoramic path. As the name suggests, you get breathtaking views over extensive orchards in the valley whilst the sun beats down on your face. Today finishes in a pleasantly adventurous manner via a suspension bridge to Partschins. This is the gateway to the Texelgruppe, which is South Tyrol's largest nature park.

Partschins - Merano

You start today in an amused manner going along the 'Bergbach' up to the 'Sagenweg' (legend path), which is an exciting exploratory path where you can once again learn lots about Vinschgau's mystical mythological world. After this, you walk through sweet-smelling apple orchards and vineyards along one of the diverse forest paths to the Algunder Waalweg. You follow the calming bubbling Waalweg past more vineyards and you can enjoy the view across the Adige valley. Above the town you walk along the world famous Tappeiner promenade where palm trees and cacti grow before arriving at today's destination and the end of your walk - the centre of Merano.
