Details about the hiking holiday the Moselle Trail

You start your six-day hiking tour on the Moselsteig in Perl in the border triangle of Germany-France-Luxembourg. The first day's stage takes you through picturesque vineyards and forests to the wine village of Palzem. You can look back on your first day of hiking with a delicious glass of Elbling wine from the region. On the following day, the route leads you on scenic paths through beautiful nature to your next stage destination Nittel on the Upper Moselle. The next day also has a fantastic active experience in store for you: the hike through the Nitteler Fels nature reserve in Rhineland-Palatinate. After a restful night in Igel, you can look forward to your last hiking stage: the hike to the cultural city of Trier, which is home to no less than nine UNESCO World Heritage Sites.

Highlights of the Moselle Trail hiking tour

- Cultural highlights in Trier: Nine UNESCO World Heritage Sites can be visited in the city of Trier. Culture fans experience a wonderful change from hiking here.
- Hikes straight from a picture book: The daily stages are designed so that they mostly lead along wonderful panoramic paths, simply wonderful!
