From Munich into Allgäu

MUNICH'S JACOBS PILGRIM TRAIL.

From the Bavarian capital of Munich, the Jakobsweg takes you to the idyllic Allgäu. Spectacular natural beauties, Bavarian cosiness and Swabian charm are nestled between Lake Constance and Lech. Special highlights: King Ludwig's castles Neuschwanstein and Hohenschwangau! Imposing views are guaranteed!

Details of the hiking tour from Munich to the Allgäu

At the time of the first pilgrims, the city of Munich was only a small settlement and probably bore the name 'zu den Mönchen' (or 'to the monks'). Today it has grown into the metropolis of Bavaria and is the starting point of your pilgrimage. From here you pass by the third largest lake in Bavaria – the Ammersee. Take time for a breather and a boat trip in this bathers paradise. You hike for three days in 'Pfaffenwinkel', from Dießen to Weilheim. Via the fascinating 'Ammerschlucht' you reach the main town of Rottenbach and the famous pilgrimage church of the monastery with the same name. Enjoy the view of the Tyrolean and Allgäu mountains!

Highlights of the pilgrimage trail from Munich to the Allgäu:

- Discover Bavaria's capital: Take your time! On day one you will explore the picturesque old town of Munich and the stately town hall on Marienplatz.
- Hike through Pfaffenwinkel: A region between Lech and Loisach in Southern Bavaria that offers a great variety of pilgrimage churches.
- Fairy tale castle Neuschwanstein: Feel like you're in the Middle Ages. The castle was built in the 19th Century as an idealised idea of a medieval knight's castle. Today it is one of the most visited castles in Europe. Don't miss out on a visit!
