Self-guided loop tour | 7/6 |

DESCRIPTION

The Allgäu and Lechtal Alps offer one of the most breathtaking hiking experiences in the Alps. Prepare for breathtaking landscapes, thrilling ascents along dramatic high-altitude trails, and the warmth of cozy mountain huts. Your adventure begins and ends in the enchanting Bavarian town of Oberstdorf. From there, conquer the striking Mädelejoch Pass, journey from Allgäu to Tyrol, and stand atop the Valluga Peak at 2,800 meters, gazing out over Vorarlberg along the exhilarating Arlberg Trail. Traverse scenic valleys like Lech and Stanzer, tackle spectacular trails leading to the Leutkircher Hut, and conclude your tour on the panoramic Krumbacher Trail in the formidable Allgäu Alps. Breathe in the crisp alpine air and let the magnificent mountain vistas leave you spellbound.

HIGHLIGHTS

Unforgettable experiences await, from the panoramic views atop the Valluga, the 'King of the Arlberg,' to the majestic mountain scenery along the remote Krumbacher High Trail. The thrill of crossing the suspension bridge at Holzgau adds to the adventure. The idyllic Lech Valley, along with marmots in the alpine meadows and chamois on the rocky cliffs, ensures lasting memories.

DIFFICULTY LEVEL TREKKING

Alpine Hikes with durations ranging up to 6.5 hours. You'll traverse high alpine terrain, requiring prior hiking experience. Sure-footedness, a head for heights, and excellent physical fitness are essential. Four out of five hiking days involve alpine trails, with easier alternatives available (except on the second day).

Day 4: St. Anton am Arlberg - Lech am Arlberg

approx. 5 hours | 13 km | 810 m 1.100 m

Ascend to over 2,800 meters via the cable car, and be dazzled by the breathtaking vistas from the Valluga. Embark on the thrilling Arlberg Trail as it guides you through rugged, alpine landscapes. After a challenging climb to the Stuttgarter Hut, savor a mesmerizing high-altitude trail with unparalleled views over the majestic plateau. After soaking in the scenery and enjoying a well-earned break, glide effortlessly down to Lech in the gondola, ending your day in style.

Hotel example: Hotel Lärchenhof

Day 5: Lech am Arlberg - Warth/surroundings

approx. 5 hours | 10 km | 430 m 380 m

After the demanding mountain stages, today's journey offers a blissful walk along the enchanting Lech Valley. Glide over verdant alpine meadows, where grazing cows add to the pastoral charm, and marvel at the dramatic views into the wild Lech Gorge. Stroll through a scenic forest path, gently ascending into the picturesque Walser village of Warth. Here, you can unwind by a serene natural swimming lake and visit the highest dairy farm in Vorarlberg, where a refreshing break awaits.

SUSTAINABILITY ON THE WAY

With every decision we make - be it in the selection of our hotel partners, the resource-saving realisation of your travel documents or the promotion of local value creation - we are consciously taking steps towards a more sustainable future. Our commitment has already been officially confirmed and certified by Travelife - a significant milestone that we are proud of. But our journey is just beginning. Only by traveling mindfully today can we still experience the beauty of unspoiled nature up close in the future.

With an active holiday, you are opting for an extremely climate-friendly form of travel. We are aware that even this generates a certain amount of CO2 emissions. The emissions caused are calculated using the internationally recognised ‘Carmacal’ CO2 calculator and offset by supporting carefully selected climate protection projects. An overview of emissions in the areas of transport, accommodation, activities and on-site catering can be found on our website.

OTHER IMPORTANT INFORMATION

For a stress-free start to your travel, arriving at the start point by early evening the day before is recommended. The individual return journey takes place on the last day of travel. For any costs incurred locally (children, local taxes, dogs etc.), as well as excluded transport and services, please refer to the itinerary or the section “Services/Things to note”. If a minimum number of participants is necessary for the trip to take place, this is defined under “Arrival dates”. If the minimum number of participants is not reached, we reserve the right to cancel the tour by the time specified under the heading “Arrival dates” before the planned travel date. We recommend organising your arrival and departure only after this deadline has passed. The distance travelled is approximate and may differ from the actual distance. The language in which the listed services are provided, as far as this is relevant for the provision of services, can be found under the heading “Services”. If special passport or visa requirements are needed for EU citizens, this is indicated under “Arrival/Parking/Departure”. This trip is not suitable for people with reduced mobility. Travel cancellation insurance, including travel interruption insurance is recommended. Information on insurance options to cover the cost of assistance during the journey, including transport in case of accident, illness or death can be found at https://www.eurobike.at/travel-insurance
